PART I - THE SCHEDULE
SECTION E
INSPECTION AND ACCEPTANCE

A. FEDERAL ACQUISITION REGULATION CLAUSES

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 52.246-3 | INSPECTION OF SUPPLIES--COST-REIMBURSEMENT (IAW FAR 46.303) | APR 1984 |
| 52.246-5 | INSPECTION OF SERVICES--COST-REIMBURSEMENT (IAW FAR 46.305) | APR 1984 |
| 52.246-11 | HIGHER LEVEL CONTRACT QUALITY REQUIREMENT (GOVERNMENT SPECIFICATION) (IAW FAR 46.311) | APR 1984 |

For the purposes of this clause blank(s) are completed as follows:
(b) ASQC Q9001 (Model for Quality Assurance Design, Development, Production, Installation and Serving)

B. SPECIAL CONTRACT CLAUSES:

E-900 INSPECTION AND ACCEPTANCE

The Contracting Officer or authorized representative will participate in contract administration, monitor contract performance, and inspect services, supplies and automated data products for the government. The acceptance of the services, supplies, and automated data products shall be by the Contracting Officer or authorized representative.

C. LOCAL ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION

QUALITY ASSURANCE. The Government Quality Assurance Surveillance Plan (QASP) will be developed to assure contractor compliance with a quality system which meets the intent of ASQC Q9001, (Model for Quality Assurance Design, Development, Production, Installation and Serving Individual Functional Area Surveillance Plans (FASPs) will be developed to surveil Contracting Officer and program management identified functional areas. These plans are designed to ensure contract technical requirements in each of the “contracted for service” areas.